Rep. Dennis Hastert
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mr. Hastert,

On January 6, 1999 I sent you a letter, with documented evidence of cover up of criminal activity, and asked that you bring this serious matter before the Representatives to Congress. I did not receive a response from you.

I sent this same information to former Speaker of the House, Newt Gingrich. He never responded. After I sent this information to Rep. Henry Hyde, during the impeachment hearings, Mr. Gingrich left Congress.

I forwarded the same letter and information to Bob Livingston who took over Mr. Gingrich's position. Shortly thereafter, he resigned.

On February 20, 1999 I wrote to you again regarding this same matter. To date, I have received no response from you either. I want an answer as to what is going to be done about this serious matter. I have the Certified Return Receipts to prove that you have received my correspondence. In all sincerity, Mr. Hastert, don't you people realize that no matter how long it takes, the truth always has a way of getting out.

To protect you from any further embarrassment, isn't it easier to bring forth the truth and settle this matter?

I await a response.

Sincerely,

Philip Castora
