Dear Ms. Lafortune:

The purpose of this letter is to acknowledge receipt of your correspondence dated February 23, 2007 regarding Thomas Paul Colantuono and others. The staff of the Investigations Division has reviewed the issues that you raised.

The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) receives a high volume of complaints every day for review and handling. Because the OIG has limited staff and resources we are not able to investigate every complaint. Only those complaints involving criminally prosecutable misconduct and the most egregious administrative misconduct can be accepted for investigation. Many other issues can and should be addressed by the management levels of the involved components. We have determined that the Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys management should review your complaint. Therefore, your complaint has been forwarded to:

Department of Justice
Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys
503 3rd Street, NW
Washington, DC 20530

Any further correspondence regarding this matter should be directed to that office.

I hope this answers any questions you have relative to this matter.

Sincerely,

Roger M. Wilhams

Special Agent in Charge
for Operations
Investigations Division
