Governor Margaret Hassan
Office of the Governor
107 North Main Street
Concord, NH 03301

Dear Governor Hassan,

On May 2, 2013 I hand delivered to your office a copy of my letter to Attorney General Joseph Foster, dated May 2, 2013. I requested to meet with you, however, you were in a meeting and I met with Robert Ditman and Kyle Sutton.

My request to you, through your assistants, was for your intervention into the assurance of the Attorney General in upholding his duties, obligations, oath of office and providing a copy to me of Investigator James Brown's investigative report as indicated in my letter.

I did receive a response to my letter to the A.G. Foster from his Deputy Attorney General, Ann M. Rice. Letters dated May 28, 29, 2013, attached.

Attached is my response to Deputy Attorney General, Ann M. Rice, dated June 8, 2013. I am concerned that the Attorney General's Office will not uphold the law and fully investigate my criminal complaint. Although I did receive a response to my letter to the Attorney General, Deputy A.G. Ann Rice confirms that my request for reports by Investigator James Brown "regarding his interviews of (my) witnesses, including eye witnesses, that there are no reports that would satisfy that request." She has confirmed my point that a fair and full investigation into my complaint was not conducted.

I am requesting that you intervene and assure that the A.G.'s office upholds the law and re-opens this case, as it has with other cases in the past.

New Hampshire Bill of Rights at Article 35, Part First of the New Hampshire Constitution provides that it is essential to the preservation of the rights of every individual, his life, liberty, property, and character, that there be an impartial interpretation of the laws, and administration of justice.

Pursuant to Title I 7:6 and 21-M:5 Powers and Duties as State's Attorney. – the attorney general shall enforce the criminal laws of the state; he shall: I. represent the public interest in the administration of the department of justice and be responsible to the governor, the general court, and the public for such administration.

Pursuant to 7:8-a Division of Public Protection. – There is hereby established within the office of the attorney general a division of public protection and 21-M:2 and 21-M:8 establish that the department of justice shall supervise and conduct criminal investigations and prosecutions.

RSA 640:2II(a) "Public servant" means any officer or employee of the state or any political subdivision thereof, including judges, legislators, consultants, jurors, and persons otherwise performing a governmental function.

Public servants have breached the tenants of their sworn oaths of office, fiduciary duties and the public's trust, including violating the American With Disabilities Act, and the Adult Protection Statute, RSA 161-F:42-57 which mandates the reporting of elder abuse. The Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Elderly and Adult Services (DEAS), charged with the responsibility to carry out the requirements of the law, failed miserably and could have prevented a death. The DHHS acts or omissions are result of gross negligence or willful misconduct and demand investigation.

Pursuant to 173-B:9 Protection by Peace Officers, as defined in RSA 173-B:1, that officer shall use all means within reason to prevent further abuse. My documented evidence, along with my witnesses' statements, will prove the obstruction of justice, undue influence and cover up by local, county and state law enforcement agencies.

I thank you and appreciate your assistance in this most serious matter.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Lafortune
